What is Storytelling, and What is a Story

story

sto·ry1 [stawr-ee, stohr-ee] Show IPA

noun, plural sto·ries.

1. a narrative, either true or fictitious, in prose or verse, designed to interest, amuse, or instruct the hearer or reader; tale.
2. a fictitious tale, shorter and less elaborate than a novel.
3. such narratives or tales as a branch of literature: song and story.
4. the plot or succession of incidents of a novel, poem, drama, etc.: The characterizations were good, but the story was weak.
5. a narration of an incident or a series of events or an example of these that is or may be narrated, as an anecdote, joke, etc.

Storytelling is so much more than “telling stories”

A story can be something that happened
to me

something that happened
to someone else

or something I imagine

Story is experience
shaped to share

Story makes sense
out of our experience

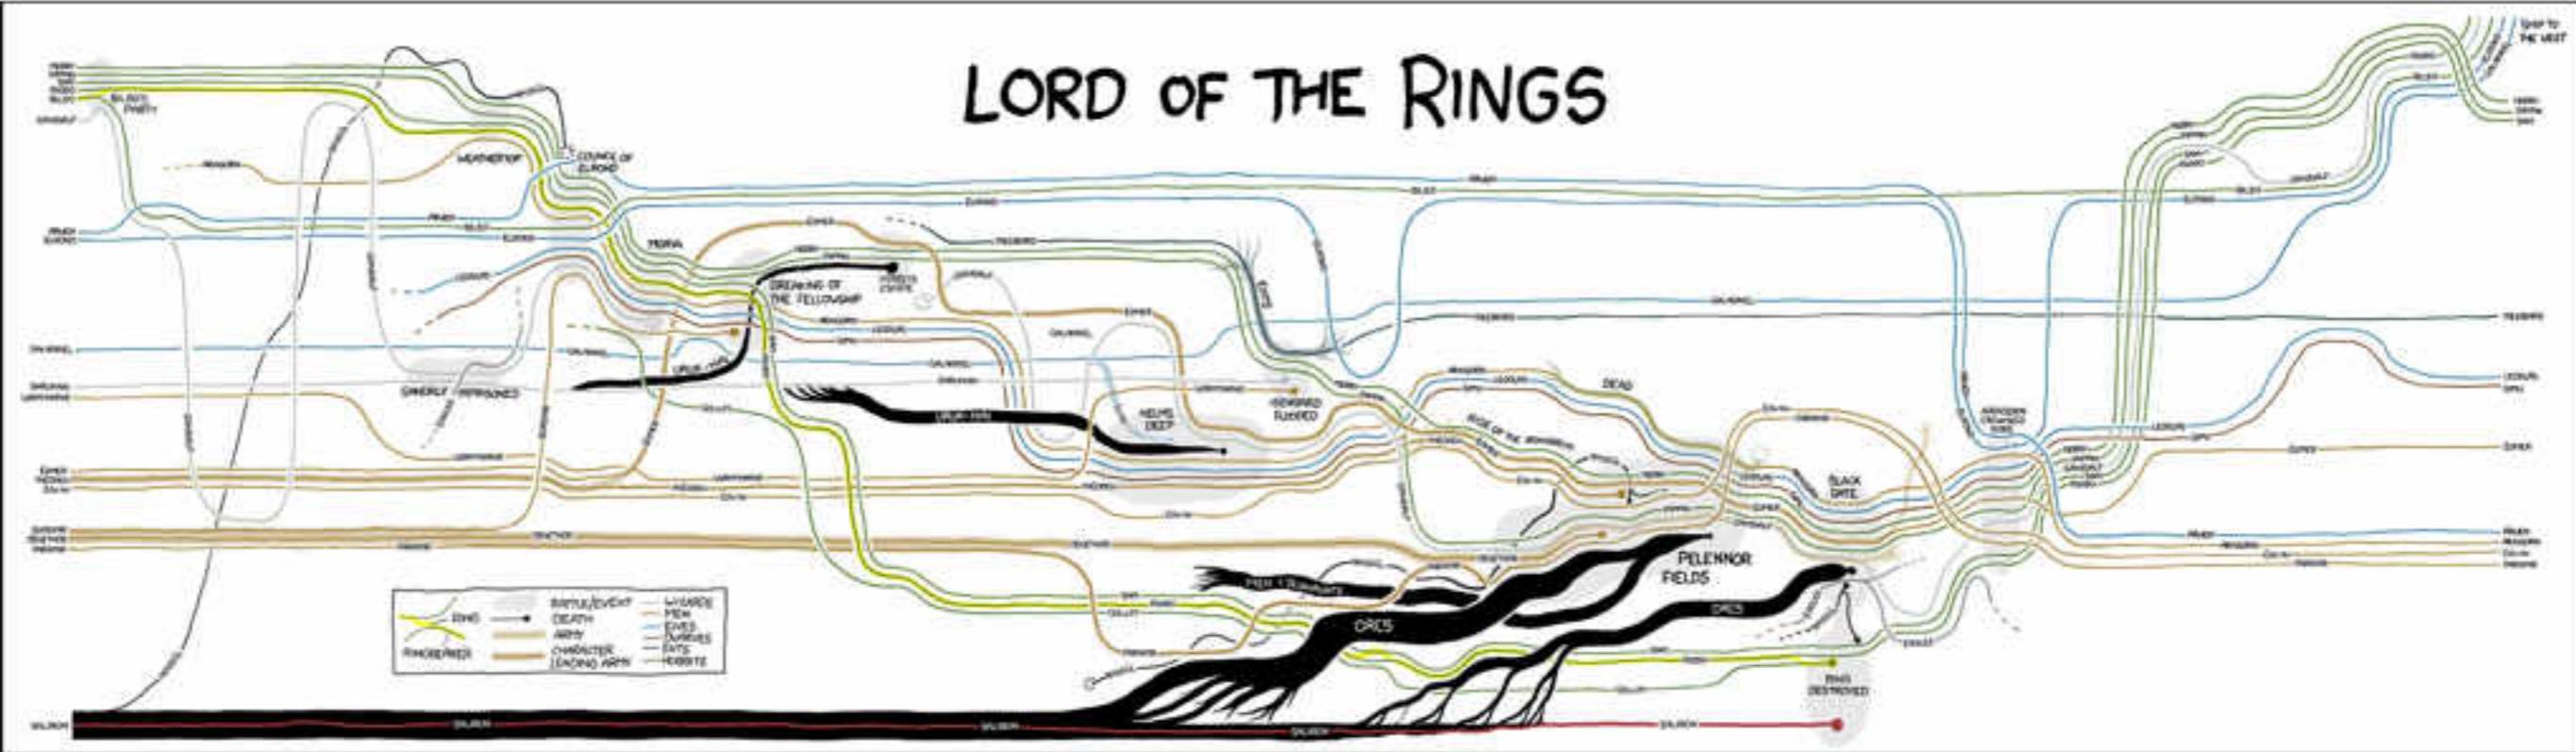

Stories are Journeys
